

4G: GREAT GAME! GREY GAMERS

Name of Game: Vintage Carnival for the Grey Gamers

- Senior resident aged 60 and above.
- Understand basic English.
- Suitable for both ambulant and non-ambulant individuals.
- Suitable for individuals with early to moderate stage dementia.
- Not for cognitive impaired individual or person diagnosed with severe dementia.

To engage senior residents by utilizing an online gaming platform "vintage carnival for the grey gamers" that focuses on enhancing their cognitive function, fine motor skills, gross motor skills and sensory activities which may result to the delay of dementia's progression. To learn more about dementia via flyers, posters, games at booths & quiz via online platform.

- Create a carnival vibe with nostalgic Singapore songs as background allows reminiscing into the olden days.
- Utilizing lights and big signages gives clear visual for the Grey Gamers.
- An open area such as the garden or park will allow them to visualize that they are in an open space to engage in the activities.
- Date and time display clearly throughout the game on the right top corner of the screen
- Coupons collected and countdown timer on the right top corner of the screen.